

What Participants Have Said...

- Packaged up so well, made it easy to share, and even easier to apply or confirm
- Wonderful "rounding out" of lay ministry
- Quite "liberating" information
- Upbeat, hopeful, positive, encouraging, affirming
- Strengthened my convictions
- Beneficial for defining ministry
- Excellent overview, easy relaxed style
- Absolutely more than I expected.
- Understanding of today's critical needs

"Every lay person through those gifts given, is at once the witness and the living instrument of the mission of the Church."

(Lumen Gentium)

The What, Who and How of Ministry

If you presently serve your parish community by:

- Visiting the sick
- Presiding at communion services, wakes or prayer services
- Serving on a commission or parish council
- Providing pastoral care to the elderly

OR if you have ever wondered how you might best use your talents to serve God and the Church...

A.C.T.S. is intended to introduce new ministry volunteers to the scope of parish service and to enhance the quality of veteran ministry volunteers.

A.C.T.S. is a six hour workshop designed to explore:

- What is Ministry
- Who is A Minister
- How Do We Minister

The What of Ministry traces our call to serve through both the Old and New Testaments, the signs and symbols of our Catholic heritage and Church documents.

Who is a Minister explores the various qualities of a minister—as a person of presence, listening and prayer. Practical communication skills are presented to enhance one's ministry.

During the How of Ministry, participants are invited to focus on a particular kind of ministry (Pastoral Care, Worship and Leadership) and presented the tools for successful ministry.
